With regard to your last email, dated October 3, 2023, your interpretation is not correct; please refer back to our first response to your initial Open Records Request, sent within the requisite three business days, letting you know that we would advise as to the cost of the production of those documents you sought. Included in this letter is a list of those anticipated costs. Please let me know whether you intend to send pre-payment.

Regarding:

"You haven't said anything about the numbers of the docket items. I've already explained how I know that you have such numbers. You just haven't told me how to get them. Perhaps when you tell me about a "docket" you're talking about an exhaustive docket that has the numbers for each docket item. I don't know that for sure, and would like to hear from you about that. I'm still in the dark about how these numbers are stored, and how they're verified by court personnel who use them.

The Fulton County Clerk of Superior and Magistrate Courts serves only as the custodian of Superior and Magistrate court records. Our office does not perform research or offer explanations of cases/dockets.

Thank you,
